

What we heard from Mr. Fearn during his presentation.

Community engagement needs to be from the heart.

Trust is a huge issue!

Public engagement is an investment, not an expense.

The 2004 citizen involvement report is a masterpiece of ideas for community engagement but was not implemented.

We must realize that WE are part of the problem.

Gathering is what makes democracy special.

Council and staff need training in community engagement.